HAPPY DAYS AHEAD FOR DIVA

By David Clough, Press Association Sport

Happy Diva can earn her plaudits in the William Hill Supporting Greatwood Gold Cup Handicap Chase at Newbury. Kerry Lee's eight-year-old, one of the most admirable and consistent mares in training, was rewarded for her sterling previous efforts this season with a Listed win at Huntingdon in January. That was against her fellow mares, and she is back in open company for Saturday's feature handicap. But Happy Diva, out of the first three just twice in 24 starts when completing over the past four years, has been competitive at a high level throughout the current campaign. She was one of several who could claim a hard-luck story in Cheltenham's Bet Victor Gold Cup, the first big handicap chase of the season back in November, in which she was brought down when still going well. Only the remarkable Cyrname has truly put her in her place since then in three subsequent outings. There is surely no opponent of that calibre
