BRIGHTON DRAW:

Much depends on the going and time of year. On good to soft or slower ground runners often head for the outside rail, while in late season it’s usually just a case of whichever jockey finds the least cut up strip of ground. Otherwise, low-drawn prominent-racers tent to hold sway in fast ground sprints, with double figures always facing an uphill task over 5f59yds.

LEICESTER DRAW:

There was a four year spell between 1998 and 2001 when the centre-to-far-side strip (middle to high) enjoyed a decisive advantage over the stands’ rail, jockeys eventually choosing to avoid the near side. However, that’s changed recently, with very low numbers more than holding their own.

NOTE:

TATTERSALLS RULE 4 APPLIES TO ALL BETS WHEN A HORSE IS WITHDRAWN & THERE IS INSUFFICIENT TIME FOR A NEW MARKET.THERE WILL BE NO TWO-UPS BETTING IN GREYHOUND RACING.

CATTERICK:

When the ground is testing, the stands’ rail is definitely the place to be, which suits high numbers in 5f races and high-draw prominent-racers at all other distances. However, when the grounds is good to firm or faster, horses draw on the inside (low) often hole the edge, and there have been several meetings over the last few seasons in which those racing prominently hardest against the inside rail have dominated (over all distances).

INDOMENEO SPIRIT TO PREVAIL AT LEICESTER

By Anita Chambers, Press Association Sport

Indomeneo has proved a thoroughly consistent performer so far and can keep up the good work for Richard Fahey in the TBA Small Breeders' Conditions Stakes at Leicester.

The Piccolo colt faced a stiff test on his racecourse bow back in May, but the value of his second behind subsequent Coventry hero Rajasinghe is there for all to see.

He has since won three of his six starts, finishing second twice as well, with his only disappointing run coming when sixth on his penultimate outing.

Indomeneo just was not on song that day for whatever reason, but bounced back with victory at Ripon last month and has clearly not come to the end of his purple patch.

He back up in class, but the conditions of the race favour him and it will be a surprise if Indomeneo is not in the shake-up.

Mohsen hit the bar at handicap level recently but is worth another shot in the Breeders Backing Racing EBF Dormouse Maiden Stakes.

Marcus Tregoning's runner has so far been unsuccessful in four maiden outings, although he did manage to finish second at Doncaster in August.

It therefore seemed to make sense to see him tackle a handicap off a mark of 73 at Chepstow, just finding one too good in the finish.

Tregoning has decided to go back to a maiden and this a weak enough event for Mohsen to be troubling the judge.

Sumbal was tackling the Champion Stakes this time two years ago and the fact he turns out in the Squirrel Handicap here ably demonstrates how far he has now fallen.

Previously trained by Francis Graffard in France, Sumbal joined David Simcock at the back-end of last year and was limited to just two reasonable efforts in Group-race company before embarking on a winter break.

However, the five-year-old took a fair while to make his return, eventually pitching up in a conditions heat at Doncaster where he ran a fair race to finish a close-up third in what was a tactical four-runner affair.

This event should be much more straightforward and Sumbal's current perch of 106 makes him a pretty attractive proposition with the ground likely to suit.

Tiercel can make a victorious return in Newcastle's George F White Handicap after being off the track for over a year.

He looked a useful tool for Roger Varian when winning twice last year, first on the Kempton all-weather before following up on turf at Windsor.

Things have seemingly not gone to plan this year given his lengthy absence, but Tiercel can start to make up for lost time now.
