CHEPSTOW:

High numbers enjoyed a massive advantage advantage in straight- course races in 2000 and the course management duly took steps to eradicate the faster strip, using the same ‘earthquake’ machine as had been employed @Goodwood in the late 90s. This had led to little in the way of a draw bias since.

LINGFIELD DRAW:

Following a less predictable spell, the stands rail (high) has taken over again in the past couple of years. The one factor that can have a massive effect on the draw is heavy rainfall on to firm ground. Presumably because of the of the undulating nature of the track and the fact that the far rail on the straight course is towards the bottom of a slope where it joins the round course, rainfall seems to make the middle and far side ride a deal slower. In these conditions the top three or four stalls have a massive edge.

SUMMER FLAIR IS LINGFIELD EYE-CATCHER

By Nick Robson, Press Association Sport

Summer Flair can open her account at the second time of asking in the 9th Barry Gurr Memorial Maiden Fillies' Stakes at Lingfield.The Godolphin homebred, who is from a family laced with decent performers,shaped nicely on her debut and sole start last season.

Racing over a mile at Yarmouth, she finished third of 10 - beaten just over two lengths.The winner, Frankellina, is still engaged in the Oaks and is held in high regard by William Haggas, but in truth the form has not really been tested yet.Nevertheless, it looked a strong heat on paper and Summer Flair was sent off favourite - suggesting she had been showing plenty at home.She tackles an extra two furlongs on her reappearance, but the way she finished at Yarmouth suggests that will not pose a problem.Manorah stands out in the Select Security Novice Stakes at Chepstow.Roger Varian's filly scored on the second of her two runs at Kempton in November, having displayed both inexperience and significant promise when finishing fourth on racecourse debut.The stable continues in fine early-season form, and on her switch to turf, Manorah looks like another winner.She has stayed on well over a mile on both runs so far, so the extra two furlongs here will surely be relished.Coolagh Forest only won by a neck last time out, but there are reasons to believe he can defy a 4lb rise in the Weatherbys Stallion Book Handicap at Musselburgh.His last race looked hot on paper, with Mark Johnston's Reggae Runner all the rage, but Coolagh Forest flew to get up close home.

The runner-up can be forgiven a dull run next time out, because it came only six days later, and Richard Fahey has given Coolagh Forest longer to get over the race.Sir Michael Stoute's Deal A Dollar looked rusty when second to Telecaster at Windsor and should be more streetwise in the Shout Digital For Innovation Novice Stakes at Newcastle.Still in the Dante, this Frankel colt lost his position when Telecaster streaked clear before staying on all too late.Stoute has started the season in good form, and this one can add another to his tally.It is Cheltenham's Hunter Chase evening, and Hazel Hill is the big attraction in the Timico Mixed Open Gold Cup Final.Punchestown is still going on, and Buveur D'Air can atone for his fall at Cheltenham in the Betdaq Punchestown Champion Hurdle.It has been a funny season for Nicky Henderson's charge, considering it started so well with his defeat of Samcro at Newcastle.He was beaten by stablemate Verdana Blue at Kempton before his customary stroll at Sandown Park.Buveur D'Air's fall was the last thing expected at Cheltenham, then possibly his stamina was stretched at Aintree over two and a half miles in soft ground.
