NEWMARKET DRAW:

very high numbers are often favoured at up 1m, when there is a narrow strip hard against the fence that rides quicker. However, on good to soft or slower grounds, runners racing down the centre are favoured on the fast side half, there is rarely much in the draw apart from on slow ground, when the fast side (low) rides faster.

SECRET PROTECTOR CAN RULE IN FEILDEN

By Anita Chambers

Secret Protector can enhance his big-race claims by winning the bet365 Feilden Stakes at Newmarket.

The Charlie Appleby-trained son of War Front won the second of his two starts at Kempton as a two-year-old, before spending the winter in Dubai.

Secret Protector ran only once in Meydan, but he certainly created a big impression when trotting up by five and a half lengths from Areen over a distance not dissimilar to this one. This is a very solid renewal of a race that can provide Classic clues, but it seems significant that he is the pick of William Buick in preference to stablemate Highland Avenue, who has been progressing nicely on the all-weather.

Aidan O'Brien's Arturo Toscanini is an obvious danger, as is Royal Champion for Roger Varian, but it is often folly to oppose Appleby and Buick on their home turf.

Hortzadar ran an excellent race in the Lincoln and can gain a deserved success in the Pat Smullen Handicap.

Outrunning his odds of 66-1 at Doncaster last month, the David O'Meara-trained six-year-old was an excellent third to the highly-progressive winner Hageeqy, beaten just two lengths.A similar effort would make him hard to beat at Headquarters.

Mutasaabeq looked a smart prospect when making a winning debut over this seven furlongs in October.
