Sallaal can blossom in Rose of Lancaster

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Sallaal is bidding for a hat-trick when he steps up to Group company for the first time in the Betway Rose of Lancaster Stakes at Haydock. The Roger Varian-trained son of Frankel was second on his seasonal reappearance in an Epsom handicap, being left with too much to do in the way things panned out but catching the eye when finishing strongly. He recouped losses when winning back at Epsom on Oaks day, hitting the front a furlong out and pulling away to come home six and a half lengths clear. That earned him a chance back outside of handicaps in the Listed Gala Stakes at Sandown and he struck at that level at the fourth time of asking, running on well to beat Persica into second. Upped in grade again the four-year-old looks markedly improved for his gelding operation and can continue to progress. The Group One-winning Fallen Angel can get back on the winning trail as she drops in class for the Irish Stallion Farms EBF Dick Hern Stakes. The daughter of Too Darn Hot was last of four runners on her only outing this season in the Middleton Stakes at York, with trainer Karl Burke being frustrated by the hot summer with a filly that prefers some cut in the ground. But with Haydock watering as they prepare to host racing again following track remedial work, Burke may have found the right opportunity for the five-year-old who has been campaigned at Group level for her last 13 starts. Graceful Song can keep her unbeaten run intact when she returns to the July course for the Newsells Park Stud Sweet Solera Stakes at Newmarket. The Dubawi filly launched her campaign in fine style in a novice at HQ, settling in at the rear of the field before Billy Loughnane made headway and took up the running in the final furlong. Loughnane will again partner the Charlie Appleby-trained two-year-old, who can come out on top before potentially having a crack at something like the Moyglare Stud Stakes at the Curragh. Hoseki has her sights set on a four-timer in the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup Classic at Ascot. The Saxon Warrior filly struck for the first time at Redcar in May when stepped up to a mile and a quarter, following that with another trip to the winner's enclosure off 5lb higher at Chester. William Haggas tried a mile and a half at Ascot last month where she held off Nochebuena by a short head and despite another 5lb for that she should have enough in hand to win again. Mountain Road can make the long trip from Lanarkshire a worthwhile one in the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup Stayers.
