The Good Biscuit looks tasty at Pontefract

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

The Good Biscuit can defy a penalty to complete a hat-trick for Ruth Carr in the Bet With Jayne - Your Local Bookmaker Handicap at Pontefract. The five-year-old won for the first time this summer when holding off Aberama Gold by a neck at Catterick last month in the hands of Joanna Mason. The son of Sixties Icon then followed up with a more impressive victory at Pontefract, readily holding the field by one and a half lengths to justify even-money favourtism. Reunited with Mason he can take the 5lb penalty in his stride to complete the three-timer. Sunny Orange can get back to winning ways in the Honda Wakefield Super-N Amateur Jockeys' Handicap. The six-year-old has been beaten only half a length on his last two starts at Beverley after being upped in trip to a mile and a quarter by Tim Easterby. Left alone on a rating of 59, the Expert Eye gelding can come on for those runs in East Yorkshire and score for the first time since April. Sea Her Excel can follow up her recent Ayr victory by again striking in the Fbs Chartered Accountants Chaplins Club Handicap. The Ivan Furtado-trained three-year-old broke her maiden in June, making all to win at Wetherby before finishing down the field at Windsor after being raised 6lb by the handicapper. But the daughter of Bungle Inthejungle bounced back in Scotland, again winning from the front and despite being raised another 3lb can follow up that Ayr triumph. The James Owen-trained Sea Suite can come on for a pair of silver-medal runs and get himself back in the winner's enclosure in the Sapporo Japanese Premium Lager Brighton Mile Challenge Handicap.The Sea The Stars gelding was beaten one and a half lengths by Tryst at Yarmouth last month and George Boughey's charge has franked that form by going on to win again at Newmarket at the weekend. He was narrowly headed last time out at Sandown but despite a 4lb raise in the weights, he can get back to winning ways. The consistent Buckland Belle can take a 6lb raise in her stride on her way to striking again in the Monty Bennetts 18th Birthday Handicap. Winning at Windsor over a mile in May, she followed up with placed efforts back at the Berkshire track twice and also at Chepstow before justifying 4-9 favourtism the last day at Leicester. She goes up in trip to nine furlongs and the St Mark's Basilica filly can again get her nose in front. Black Chiffon has been off the track for the best part of a year but is still the selection to maintain her unbeaten run in the Unibet 3 Uniboosts A Day Novice Stakes at Kempton. The daughter of Night Of Thunder won a Salisbury maiden in October and returns after a 307-day absence as she tackles a mile for the first time. The multi-purpose Tuba can complete an all-weather hat-trick for Fergal O'Brien in the Unibet More Extra Place Races Handicap. The grey won twice over a mile and three-quarters at Wolverhampton earlier this year before switching to hurdles to score at Fakenham but was well beaten at Market Rasen last time out. The return to the level and back in trip to two miles can bring out the best in the Golden Horn gelding.
