STAR SHOULD PUT ON A SHOW AT NEWBURY

By Ashley Iveson, Press Association

Starzand is expected to come out on top in an intriguing Amber River Life Landscaping EBF 'National Hunt' Novices' Hurdle at Newbury. Connections stumped up #230,000 to secure the Irish point-to-point winner at the Cheltenham Tattersalls sale in January and he has since won a bumper and a maiden hurdle at Ffos Las. The blossoming training partnership of Philip Hobbs and Johnson White have a number of smart performers in this division, so it is notable that the Grade One Challow Hurdle at Newbury over the Christmas period was recently mentioned as a possible destination for Starzand. He instead heads to Berkshire a little earlier and while his task is not straightforward, with recent Ascot scorer Kripticjim and Irish raider Daydream Nation among his rivals, the Harzand gelding can continue his progression with another victory. Lucky Place is given a second chance to prove his worth over fences in the J M Finn 'Chasing Excellence' Beginners' Chase. A dual Grade Two winner over hurdles, Nicky Henderson's charge ran a peculiar race on his chasing debut at Ascot last month, looking the likely winner turning for home before stopping quickly and then rallying on the run-in. While his defeat was disappointing, he was only beaten five lengths at a time when the Seven Barrows string were not firing on all cylinders and it subsequently transpired he had scoped dirty after the race. The Henderson team appear in better form now and Lucky Place needs to be winning a race like this if he is going to make the grade over the larger obstacles. Dan and Harry Skelton can land the Best Odds Guaranteed Still At BetVictor Maiden Hurdle with Kadastral. The five-year-old won the Goffs Hundred Grand Bumper here in the spring and there was plenty of encouragement to be taken from his hurdling bow at Chepstow in early November. Although no match for the high-class Sober Glory in Monmouthshire, Kadastral was 14 lengths clear of the remainder and he has every chance of going one better. There will surely be some long faces at the Twiston-Davies yard if Un Sens A La Vie is unable to make the most of what looks a gilt-edged opportunity to get back on the winning trail at Ludlow. The #180,000 purchase looked a possible graded horse in the making when winning on his hurdling debut at Market Rasen, but he disappointed as favourite for a Grade Two at Cheltenham just 10 days later. He is perhaps better judged on his most recent effort when he finished second at Kempton to Old Park Star, who did that form no harm when dotting up at Cheltenham last week. There does not appear to be anything of his calibre in the Tanners Cava EBF 'National Hunt' Novices' Hurdle and even with a 6lb penalty Un Sens A La Vie is difficult to oppose. Mersea Island looks to continue his good form in the Make The Move To Midnite Handicap at Lingfield. The three-year-old has won two of his last three starts for Charlie Johnston, with a narrow defeat sandwiched in between, and he was value for more than the winning margin of four lengths at Wolverhampton last time. With that in mind it is no surprise to see him turned out quickly under a penalty and he can strike again whilst the iron is hot. The Roger Varian-trained Aqpan was probably unfortunate to bump into smart-looking Godolphin newcomer Hidden Force on his Kempton debut a couple of weeks ago and he can confirm that promise on his return to the Sunbury circuit for the Unibet Supports Safer Gambling EBF Novice Stakes.
