PRESSE CALLING THE SHOTS AT WARWICK

By Nick Robson, Press Association

L'Homme Presse can stamp his class on the William Hill Half A Mill Classic Chase if Warwick survives Storm Goretti. While the latest blast of icy weather may sound more like an Italian lager, Venetia Williams' 11-year-old can leave his rivals punch drunk. Lightly-raced, his class has never been in doubt. His victory as a novice chaser at Cheltenham stands out as a career highlight, and there have been several others. He proved he can carry big weights when winning the Rehearsal Chase off 164 in 2022 and would have been second in the King George that year but for unseating at the last. With a Fleur De Lys Chase and Cotswold Chase victory also on his CV, he has been a great servant to connections. Making his return from a lengthy absence at Cheltenham last month over an extended three and a quarter miles, he stayed on pleasingly to be second and his presence restricts the field to just nine runners due a new rule meaning nothing can run from more than 15lb out of the handicap. Five tricky fences down the back straight might catch out Wade Out in the Hampton Novices' Chase and as Moon Rocket showed a tendency to jump right at Doncaster last time out, which will be a hindrance here, Doyen Quest, with all his experience, could be the safest option. Lanesborough can follow up an impressive Doncaster win in the Coral Lanzarote Handicap Hurdle at Kempton Park. Ben Pauling's seven-year-old made a mockery of a mark of 116 and conceding 16lb to him should prove too much for French Ship. A sharp three miles could be just the job for Alan King's The Doyen Chief in the Coral ``New'' Horse Racing Bet Builder Handicap Chase having faltered when looking the likely winner at Cheltenham when last seen. Ralph Beckett does not have many to run at this time of year but he is never far away with those that do. He sends Siam Ruby to Lingfield for the Midnite Are Upping The Betting Game Maiden Stakes, where she should take all the beating. Her dam, Ruby Power, is closely related to Jacqueline Quest who was first past the post in the 1000 Guineas back in 2010 only to be disqualified, and Siam Ruby showed up nicely on debut. Beckett's charge was fourth of nine at Chelmsford when 16-1, so not much was expected, but she really caught the eye and was not far behind a much better fancied stablemate. Nearly one in four of all Ian Williams' runners are winning over the last couple of weeks which makes Woodstock City one to be with in the Join The Midnite Movement Handicap. A winner two runs ago at Southwell, he was a bit disappointing afterwards but has been freshened up since then. Mick Appleby's Baldomero is now rated a lofty 92 having won three of his last four and that makes him the best horse on show. He will attempt to defy top-weight in the Create Your Bet Builders At Midnite Handicap and as he had to overcome a troubled passage last time out he still won with a bit to spare, meaning a 2lb rise might not be enough to stop him. Iain Jardine has worked wonders with Second Fiddle who will aim for an seventh win in eight races since joining from Ireland. The seven-year-old will line up in the Best Odds Guaranteed At BetMGM Handicap at Newcastle off a mark of 70, having started her winning run off 46. Last time out was by far a career-best effort and there is no knowing where her improvement will end given she had shown next to nothing in Ireland.
