TOOTHLESS CAN MAKE MARK

FOR NICHOLLS AT PERTH

By Molly Hunter, Press Association

Toothless can make a mark for Paul Nicholls in the River Tay Handicap Chase at Perth. The gelding will be ridden by Freddie Gingell and comes into the race on a good run of form having finished in the first two in all three starts this year. He has been gradually nudged up the handicap as a result, but was competitive off a much higher figure over hurdles and he looks poised to make the most of this opportunity. At Warwick, Gary and Josh Moore's Testing Patience can take a step forward to win the Charlie Wilson Memorial Maiden Hurdle. The six-year-old was placed in a bumper before making his hurdling debut at Kempton, a run that can be chalked up to experience as his jumping let him down ahead of a fourth-placed finish. Next time out at Fontwell he looked to have improved significantly, perhaps appreciating a step down in trip when second in a two-mile three-furlong maiden hurdle. He will encounter the same distance here and can get his head in front if progressing again since his last outing. Fergal O'Brien and his daughter Fern can team up to win the KTDA Mares' Challenger Series Final Handicap Hurdle with Siog Geal. The seven-year-old can be relied on to make the frame in these sorts of contests, and in fact has only come home out of the top three twice from 10 runs. She ran a big race to come home fifth in the Listed Paddy And Maureen Mullins Mares Handicap Hurdle at Leopardstown in February when encountering heavy ground for the first time, and was narrowly second when last seen at Chepstow in March. She is allocated top weight of 12st as she steps up in trip at Warwick, but the 5lb claim of her rider eases that burden and the extended distance should be manageable for a three mile point-to-point winner. Lion Rose Sivola lines up with more experience than his rivals in the Molly Ollys Open National Hunt Flat Race and can bode well as a result. Jonjo and AJ O'Neill's grey has won a point to point and run in two bumpers to date, placing second both times to give plenty of encouragement ahead of his third attempt under rules. On the Flat at Beverley Andrew Balding's Cape Fear can come to the fore in the Book Attraction Restaurant Online Restricted Maiden Stakes. The Kameko colt ran once at two and made his three-year-old debut at Bath when third over an extended 10 furlongs. That extra distance seemed to aid his cause and he will take on the same trip again with race experience on his side in East Yorkshire. At Southwell, John and Thady Gosden's Yazin appears to be the horse to beat in the Southwell Cardinal Conditions Stakes. The New Bay colt won two of his three starts last season, latterly winning a seven-furlong Newmarket novice in good style under a penalty. He will be popular on his return to action at three and with only two rivals to account for should be able to justify the probable expectation that he should win.
