Silver sparkle expected to show at Ascot

By Josh Luckhurst, Press Association

Silver Dominion can take top honours for Oliver Cole in the Listed Flexjet Pat Eddery Stakes at Ascot. The Gleneagles colt made a winning debut in a Newbury novice and immediately jumped up to Group Two level on his next start in what looked a good renewal of the Superlative Stakes at Newmarket. He ran with credit when fourth, three and a half lengths behind winner Al Hudaiba, who edged Aidan O'Brien's highly regarded Abraham Lincoln by a short head, with Chesham fifth Pikachu in third. Rated 98 and seemingly versatile ground-wise, Silver Dominion has the highest official mark in this seven-furlong contest and the Jim and Fitri Hay-owned juvenile should have too much if running to that standard. Al Azd has been productive over a mile and a half and should again give his running when he goes in the Sodexo Live! Handicap. Trained by Roger Varian, the three-year-old has one of the top handlers in the country in the staying division on his side and his reputation has grown in a busy campaign. The son of Dubawi has only finished outside the top two once in seven starts this year, posting a career-best at Royal Ascot when finding only Enceladus too much in the King George V Stakes. With Varian in his corner and in-form Ray Dawson in the saddle he can continue his progression. Fireblade's course and distance experience will be a huge benefit in the John Guest Racing Brown Jack Handicap. After finishing midfield on two starts this year, the five-year-old son of Frankel returned to form with a runner-up spot at Ascot last time out. Dylan Cunha's charge has not raced over two miles since his course and distance success last August and a return to this trip could be the difference. It is hard to look past Diamond Rain in the British EBF Lyric Fillies' Stakes at York. Charlie Appleby's globetrotting daughter of Shamardal already has two Listed and the Hoppings Fillies' Stakes on her CV, while picking up place honours in Woodbine's E P Taylor Stakes and the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Del Mar last autumn. She was only two lengths behind See The Fire on her reappearance over course and distance and was headed on the line when defending her Newcastle Group Three crown last month. Her mark of 112 is clear from the rest of the field. Isabella De Vega is a big-money buy for Ed Walker in the opening Sky Bet Go-Racing-In-Yorkshire Summer Festival EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes at Thirsk. Costing 350,000 guineas, the Lope De Vega filly is a full-sister to American Grade One winner Expensive Queen and dual Group Three victor Antonia De Vega so she could be a potential star for the Kingsdown handler. Sarasota Blue Blue is a half-sister to five-furlong winners Manatee Mehmas and Tiva and is an interesting two-year-old newcomer at this time of year for Sir Mark Prescott in the Chasemore Farm EBF Maiden Fillies' Stakes at Sandown.
