Flight Tracker set for Southwell success

By Chris Phillips, Press Association

Flight Tracker can put two near misses behind him and hit the back of the net in the Weekend Winners On At The Races Maiden Stakes at Southwell. The Sea The Stars colt made his racecourse debut at Sandown at the beginning of last month and found only First Law too good, losing his lead inside the final 100 yards and going down by just a head. That form has since been franked, with Charlie Appleby's winner going on to win the Listed Ascendant Stakes at Haydock. Flight Tracker then appeared in a decent Goodwood novice and met traffic problems in the final furlong, so was perhaps a shade unfortunate to be beaten three-quarters of a length by hot favourite George Cross. Ralph Beckett's charge looks to have less on his plate as he switches to the all-weather and can shed his maiden tag. Miss Lady Grace can complete a hat-trick in the Download The At The Races App Fillies' Handicap. The three-year-old won at Goodwood and Chester in June and will be fresh having had a 102-day break. Charlie Johnston's Solarize can make his return from a 216-day break a winning one in the Weekend Winners On At The Races Handicap. The Masar colt was a two-time winner last season and made his reappearance at Kempton in February, when he was beaten half a length into second by Hamlet's Night over a mile and three furlongs. Stepping back up to a mile and a half he can strike off a mark 21lb higher than that valiant effort at the beginning of the year. Jm Jungle can profit from a drop in grade in the Eddie And Violet Smith Conditions Stakes at Beverley. The six-year-old was triumphant on the Westwood last month, demonstrating his class with a game victory in the East Yorkshire track's flagship race, the Beverley Bullet. That saw him step back into Group One company for his next assignment in the Flying Five at the Curragh and he was not disgraced in being beaten two and three-quarter lengths by Comanche Brave. Well drawn in stall two, the son of Bungle Inthejungle can again strike for John and Sean Quinn. The Quinns have enjoyed their days out at Beverley this season and can also enjoy success at the track's final meeting of the season with Star People in the Christmas Parties R Us Restricted Novice Stakes. The Sioux Nation gelding can put a run of four second place finishes in his last five races behind him to break his maiden. Rebecca Menzies' Battenburg Belle is another filly going hat-trick hunting in the John Allinson 90th Birthday Handicap. The versatile three-year-old won on good to firm and good to soft at Catterick and can continue her progress despite a 5lb rise for her latest triumph. The Danish-bred Dunkerque has enjoyed a fruitful summer and is taken to extend that form in the Paul Ferguson's Jumpers To Follow Handicap Chase at Warwick. After winner over hurdles at Newcastle in April he took to fences like a duck to water when recording a hat-trick of victories at Southwell, Kelso and Newton Abbot. He then dropped back in trip at Cartmel and found only Passing Diamond too good before going back up to two and three-quarter miles at Stratford and cruising to a 10-length victory. He was only beaten a neck last time out by Follow Your Luck in a match race at Perth and having never finished outside of the top two in his chasing career so far, he can add to his tally on his first start beyond three miles.
